Your submission will remain part of your candidate profile for exactly one year (01 April to 31 March) and will be used by hiring managers to determine your suitability for the position being staffed.

As of 01 April, of the following year, you will receive an email, asking to confirm your interest in remaining in the RCPO Inventory.

II. SCREENING

Candidates whose application package align with the requirements of the position being staffed, will be referred to management for consideration.

The Hiring Manager of the selection process will conduct a final screening against qualifications listed in the Statement of Merit Criteria.

III. ASSESSMENT

In addition to the Candidate Achievement Record, candidates will be invited to participate in a structured interview to further assess their suitability for the position being staffed.

Additional assessments may also take place (e.g. practical assessment, physical evaluations, etc.) to ensure that all merit criteria has been assessed.

IV. NOTIFICATION OF APPOINTMENT

Once a candidate is being considered for a position, the notification process begins. The candidate that has been deemed the “Right Fit” will be contacted and informed of their consideration for appointment. All others who have undergone the assessment process for the position being staffed will also be notified that they have not been selected for appointment at this time.

IMPORTANT, ADDITIONAL INFORMATION

- Be sure to include proof of being stationed in Europe (e.g. NATO SOFA stamp). For those incoming during current APS, please note that you can apply with a copy of your sponsor’s posting message – however, a SOFA stamp will be required prior to starting employment.
- Candidates need to submit their application via our online platform: RCPO Inventory (ONLY ONLINE APPLICATIONS WILL BE CONSIDERED IN THIS STAFFING PROCESS)
- Your application must include an email address and you must ensure that this address is functional and monitored at all times and accepts messages from unknown users (some email systems block these types of email). Failure to respond in a prescribed timeframe may result in elimination from this process.
- When using this inventory, the Staffing and Classification Advisor responsible consults with the manager to determine the requirements of the position being staffed. This includes merit criteria and Right Fit selection requirements.
- The Department may identify other relevant experience criteria and then evaluate candidates based on the needs of the sector.
- You may be assessed using a variety of assessment tools, such as, but not limited to: written exams, interviews, reference checks, etc.
- Your overall conduct and communications, including email correspondence, throughout the entire process may be used in the assessment of qualifications.
- Persons are entitled to participate in the appointment process in the official language of their choice.

- Achieving the pass mark on any of the assessments used does not mean you will move forward in the selection process. Management may decide to use a score that is higher than the pass mark on any of the evaluations used throughout the selection process.
 - Depending on the needs of the organization, a random selection and or top-down selection may be used at any time during the process to identify which applicants from the inventory will be assessed.
 - A pool of partially qualified candidates may be established through this process to staff identical or similar positions.
 - Appointments are based on merit, which is achieved when the person appointed meets the essential qualifications for the work to be performed, and consideration has been given to:
 - ✓ Any additional qualifications that are an asset to perform the work or for the organization, currently or in the future;
 - ✓ Any current or future operational requirement; and/or
 - ✓ Any current or future organizational need.
 - Costs associated with assessment will not be paid or reimbursed by the employer (i.e. travel or any other administrative costs)
 - Lateral transfers are possible within the organization, and these individuals may be given preference in the staffing process.
 - Any potential conflicts of interest will be considered when determining your eligibility for referral for a specific position; in order to do so you effectively, you may be asked for additional clarifying details.
 - Security clearance: Those selected must meet this condition on appointment and maintain it throughout their tenure in the position.
 - Other conditions of employment may be required for some positions. These conditions will be communicated to the candidates considered for that specific appointment.
 - A person employed full-time on an indefinite basis, who has been laid-off in the last twelve months may be entitled to be appointed in priority to all other persons, to a position at the respective Mission for which, in the opinion of the Deputy Minister, the employee is qualified.
