Laws and Culture:

- Speed limits are 130 km/hr on motorways and 50 km/hr in cities/towns.
- Most of the roads you will encounter are of the highest quality, and the motorways – though often tolled – are a very efficient way of travelling between cities.
- It is illegal to completely cover your face in public places in France. However, the following are exceptions:
 - Clothing is required or authorized by law (e.g. a full helmet for a motorcycle)
 - The dress is justified by health reasons or professional reasons (protective mask for example)
 - The outfit is part of sports practices, festivals or artistic or traditional events.
- This ban includes fully covering your face in the international arrivals area at airports. Failure to comply can lead to a heavy fine. There are no exemptions for tourists or religious reasons.
- Penalties for drinking and driving are severe. The legal blood alcohol limit is 0.05%.

Safety and Security:

- Crime rates are low. It is encouraged to always practice general safety practices at home and in the community.
- There is a threat of terrorism in Europe. Terrorists have carried out attacks in several European cities. In France, separate attacks causing multiple deaths and injuries have taken place. The attacks, whether opportunistic or premeditated, targeted public spaces, including entertainment venues, restaurants and tourist sites. Further attacks in Europe are likely.

Level of isolation:

- Language challenges can cause a high level of isolation, particularly among spouses.
- There is one Canadian family in this location.

HOUSING

- Using a local real estate agency is recommended, especially to avoid misunderstandings with lease, language barrier.
- Housing in the economy. Furnished possible.
- Most homes and flats are much bigger than the average in Canada.

EMPLOYMENT

Are there employment opportunities for spouses?

- Due to tax and legal implications, spousal employment in the economy is not an option.
- Employment is extremely limited. Families should plan to be a single-income family for the duration of the posting. CFMWS | MFS | OUTCAN Europe | CFMWS
- Language abilities in French would be a condition for employment.

Op Tempo: Varies depending on place of work and position.
