Rejeana Brown

As a person born and raised in Prince George (the family recently returned to the area after 8 postings), Rejeana understands northern interior life and the benefit of having local representation on an MFRC board that serves a large geographic area. Previously, Rejeana served as secretary of the Assiniboine Ave Elementary PAC in New Brunswick and more recently was the International Spouses' Representative on the board of the Quantico Spouses' Social Club (Marine Base Quantico, Virginia) from 2021-2022. Currently, Rejeana is serving on a fundraising committee for her children's school. She has also been continuing with courses in support of her volunteer work with Northern Health at Parkside Seniors' Residence. In 2020, Rejeana completed her Bachelor of Physical Education Studies with a Minor in Applied Disaster Emergency at Brandon University while the family was posted to CFB Shilo. Rejeana is a military spouse and the mother of 3 children ages 17,13 and 12.

Honeywell Tulabing

A junior accountant with extensive experience in various fields, Honeywell's career path shifted in recent years when she had the opportunity to work full time as a homemaker. Honeywell's accounting career started in Burnaby and continued in Edmonton. It was also in Edmonton where she completed her Business Administration Diploma and Business Administration Accounting Diploma, both at Northern Alberta Institute of Technology. The family's next move took them to Kamloops when her husband was posted to the Rocky Mountain Rangers. Now in addition to supporting her children at their schools and in their extra-curricular activities, Honeywell also keeps up to date with her accounting skills by helping others file their annual returns during tax season. Honeywell is a military spouse and mother of 3 children ages 11, 6 and 2.
