

GETTING SETTLED INTO YOUR NEW COMMUNITY

Moving and the Costs Incurred

BGRS

The BGRS is the focal point of the logistical, administrative, and financial organization of your relocation.

As soon as you receive your posting message, you can create an account and register your transfer. This gives you access to the self-service portal.

To create an account or to connect to it, go to the following site:

 <https://bgrsguide.bgrs.ca/account/login>

You can also contact the BGRS Services Coordinator at your base for further information.

The ABCs of Military Postings

The ABCs of Military Postings is section of the Government of Canada website that contains a wealth of information to help you in making financial, real estate and other military-related decisions you must make during your relocation process. To access ABCs of Military Postings:

Houses

Are you interested in buying a house in Saguenay? To find out more about the real estate market in Saguenay, visit the website below, which centralizes almost all the offers of house sales:

 <https://www.centris.ca/en>

Vous pouvez aussi vous rendre sur les sites Web des agences les plus populaires :

- Remax
- Via Capitale
- Sutton
- Du Proprio
- Proprio Direct

For further information, please contact a real estate agent directly. You can also call us for a list of bilingual real estate agents.

Renting

Renting an apartment or a house can also be an option. Note that generally in Quebec, July 1 is the most popular day for moving. However, it is possible to rent an apartment or a house at any time of the year.

To find an apartment or a house for rent, you can:

- Consult Facebook sales and rental groups.
- Explore the streets, in search of À louer (For Rent) signs.
- Consult ad websites such as Kijiji or LesPAC.

For any questions you might have about renting a home in Quebec or the rights and responsibilities of tenants and landlords, please refer to the Tribunal administratif du logement:
